CSU Long Beach, CSU Los Angeles, and Cal Poly Pomona offer an approved American Dietetic Association Didactic Program in Dietetics. Students pursuing career goals in the dietetic field qualify for post-graduate internships, pre-professional practice programs and/or graduate programs that can lead to a membership in the American Dietetic Association. Upon completion of a dietetic internship or pre-professional practice program, students are eligible to take an examination to become a Registered Dietician. For more information on Registered Dieticians and the ADA go to the website www.eatright.org.
