Curriculum leads to the Associate in Arts Degree. These degree options are designed to give students a broad introduction to an area of knowledge represented by related disciplines and topics, as well as to prepare transfer students for a field of study at a university. Students will select an "Area of Emphasis" from the following four options based on their interests and their educational and career goals. All courses must be completed with a grade of "C" or better.

- Science and Mathematics
- Arts and Human Expression
- Social Sciences
- Social Behavior and Self-Development

Interdisciplinary Studies with an Emphasis in Science and MathematicsPROGRAM CODE: 2A18163*

The Interdisciplinary Studies: Emphasis in Science and Mathematics Associate in Arts Degree prepares students with the development of mathematical and quantitative reasoning skills beyond the level of intermediate algebra. Students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the methodologies of science as investigative tools. Students will also examine the influence that the acquisition of scientific knowledge has on human experience. This emphasis includes lower-division coursework that prepares students for majors in science, math, and health related fields. Transfer pathways may have additional requirements outside of this degree. Please see a counselor to explore your options.

C | IP | RInterdisciplinary Studies: Social Behavior and Self-Development Associate in Arts

PROGRAM CODE: 2A18166

The Interdisciplinary Studies: Emphasis in Social Behavior and Self-Development Associate in Arts Degree prepares students with the knowledge and understanding of social behavior and self-development. This area of emphasis is designed to prepare students to use their understanding of themselves and others to communicate and collaborate more effectively. It combines knowledge of theory with attention to personal growth and purpose, as well as health and wellness. Students learn to become citizens who care for themselves and others, ready to work with people in their communities. Participation in group activities and collaborative projects is a central focus of this emphasis, allowing students to experience group interactions in a variety of contexts. This emphasis includes lower division coursework that prepares students for social/health/human services majors and careers in people/community oriented professions including social, health and recreational services. Veteran's Military Credit (DD214) Fullerton College will accept a veteran's DD-214 for credit towards Fullerton's Interdisciplinary Studies: Social Behavioral and Self-Development Associate in Arts degree as follows: 3 units for Area C) Health and Wellness.
