PARALEGAL STUDIES 2026 – 2027

PARALEGAL STUDIES ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE (AS) DEGREE

The Fullerton College's ABA-approved curriculum leads to an Associate in Science (AS) Degree and entry-level employment in a paraprofessional capacity as an assistant to an attorney in private practice, in a governmental agency, or in private industry. This degree requires 30 units, of which 24 are in required paralegal courses below. An additional 6 units must be chosen from the paralegal restrictive electives listed below. A minimum grade of "C" is required in all required and restrictive elective courses.

Paralegals may perform many tasks under the supervision of a licensed attorney including preparation of forms and pleadings, interviewing clients, researching and writing legal documents, managing in a law office, and preparing word processing forms and documents. The Fullerton College Paralegal Studies Program is approved by the American Bar Association (ABA) and does not prepare students for law school or the practice of law. Under California's Business and Professions Code, Section 6450 (et seq.), a paralegal may not market his or her services to the public, but must work under the direct supervision of an attorney licensed to practice law.

PARALEGAL STUDIES CERTIFICATE

The Paralegal Studies Certificate requires the completion of 33 units of which 24 are in the required courses below. An additional 9 units must be chosen from the restrictive electives listed below. A minimum grade of "C" is required in each course. All required courses must be completed at Fullerton College. Students must possess an AA, AS, BA, BS or higher degree from a regionally-accredited college. Students with an Associate degree must have their transcript(s) evaluated for General Education requirements as listed in the GE requirements for an Associate of Science in Paralegal Studies. The Fullerton College Paralegal Studies Program is approved by the American Bar Association (ABA) and does not prepare students for law school or the practice of law. Under California's Business and Professions Code, Section 6450 (et seq.), a paralegal may not market his or her services to the public, but must work under the direct supervision of an attorney licensed to practice law.

Students who wish to transfer course work from another ABA-approved paralegal program may be able to transfer up to six (6) restricted elective units provided the course is the same as a course offered in the Fullerton College Paralegal Studies Program and awards exactly the same number of units. Students who wish to attain an Associate in Science Degree or a Certificate from Fullerton College's Paralegal Studies Program must complete the 24 units of required courses for the major at Fullerton College. Students who wish to transfer in Paralegal Studies units must obtain prior approval from the Paralegal Department Coordinator or the Business Division Dean.
